Description

Discover this wonderful egg-shaped clock, made of Limoges porcelain and finely hand-painted, signed by the artist. The delicate painting depicts spring flowers, adding a touch of freshness and elegance to this precious object. The egg can be opened, revealing an ornate 18-karat gold opening, decorated by an exquisite flower-shaped button. Inside, there is a "Swiss Made" watch dial, with a quartz movement, guaranteeing exceptional precision and reliability. Dating from 1980, this egg is a true jewel of watchmaking and art. Ingeniously designed, it serves as both a pendulum and a treasure box. The dial is removable, allowing you to hide little secrets inside. This masterpiece rests on a delicately crafted wooden base, adding an extra touch of refinement. This clock is not only a functional
