

Russian Gardner Biscuit Figure Of Woman From Mordovia,perfect Condition

4 000 EUR

Signature : Gardner,Russie

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Provenance

From the 'Peoples of Russia' series.

Literature

Porcelain in Russia. 18th - 19th centuries. The Gardner Factory SPb: Palace Editions, 2003. Chapter V. Pl 30.

More information

The Gardner factory in Moscow started to produce the 'People of Russia' series in the 1870's, the complete series consists of approximately 50 figures. The series were based on colour lithographies from a book published 1861 by T de Pauli. The book was called 'Description Ethnographique des peuples de la Russie', and was presented at the celebration of

Dealer

Rosita Rapetti Gallery

Art et antiquités Russia et Européens

Tel : +33659879603

Via Nuvoloni 19

Sanremo 18038

the Russian Empire millennium. It gives us a broad coverage of the people under the Russian Emperors reign, showing subjects ranging from Hindus, Balkans, Greeks all the way to the Siberians and the Russian Americans. This series follows the tradition of the J.D. Rachette series of the Imperial porcelain manufactory (1780's). The figures truly are like small sculptures, all very individual.