Description

We are pleased to present an exceptional three-dimensional alabaster sculpture by renowned artist Ignacio Villar from Salamanca, Spain. This unique piece, signed by the author and dated 1992, is a magnificent example of abstract style that renounces conventional and narrative representation. The work stands out for its facets that capture movement, dynamics, and tensions, achieving a perfect balance between its different parts. The choice of alabaster as a material adds a spiritual dimension and a white purity that compensates for the potential coldness of abstraction, infusing warmth and a singular welcome into the figure. This timeless creation is a piece worthy of the most prestigious art collections, inviting deep contemplation and offering an aesthetic experience that transcends
