Description

Large bronze statue with medal-colored patina "Joan of Arc listening to prayers" attributed to Dumaigue Henri Etienne (1830-1888) Height 76 cm The sculpture represents Joan of Arc, French national heroine and saint of the Catholic Church, in a poignant pose with a modest outfit without shoes. The sculpture was created with the greatest attention to detail, which is particularly evident in the character's face and hands. The cylindrical base of the statue rests on a removable and rotating 7 cm marble base. Superb size, quality and rotating base.
