Description

Vallauris, 1950s, very beautiful earthenware plate with very colorful trompe-l'oeil decoration of a fish, a crab, shells, algae and corals on a black background. This type of creation, very popular at that time, corresponds to the discovery of the Côte d'Azur by the general public thanks to great personalities from cinema and the world of Art. Thus, such an acquisition allowed everyone to leave with a bit of the Mediterranean dream. The colors are sparkling and the representations are very realistic.

Diameter 18.7 cm. The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a brand known to everyone.

Good condition. No shock, no crack, no lack.

We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. The shipment is made
