Description

We offer you this piece of History; a piece of the Berlin Wall taken on April 10, 1990 by the French National Gendarmerie in the Frohnau district, district of Reinickendorf, then French sector. The wax seal of the Berlin Gendarmerie detachment was affixed to this piece of concrete wall. It is bound by a label written by the head of this unit attesting to the authenticity of this fragment of the Berlin Wall. A moving testimony from a great figure in the history of Germany and post-war Europe and all the upheavals that resulted from it.

Dimensions: Length 15 cm. Height 10.6 cm. Depth 6.3 cm. The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a brand known to everyone.
