Description

Small bronze bust of Plato, finely chiseled and patinated brown.

Italy, Naples, 19th century.

The bust is mounted on a round base made of greenish serpentine.

The bust is inscribed with the word "Plato"

The identity of the depiction is currently unclear. Archaeologists attribute it to the philosopher Plato.

The Swiss archaeologist Karl Weber discovered this depiction around 1750 during his excavations in the Villa dei Papiri, near Herculaneum in the Gulf of Naples.
