Description

Attributed to Anne-Rosalie FILLEUL, pastel representing the portrait of a young child sitting on a blue silk cushion decorated with gold trimmings and holding in her hand one of her shoes with a pink ribbon. Anne-Rosalie FILLEUL, born Boquet in 1752 in Paris, is a French painter and pastel artist, friend of Élisabeth Vigée-Le Brun. She was a member of the Academy of Saint-Luc in Paris. Most of his portraits, placed in the Garde Meuble, disappeared with the French revolution and today only those of the children of the Countess of Artois remain. Louis XVI period, 18th century
Very good general condition despite a little wear in the dress.
