Description

Freemasonry pocket watch 19th century Switzerland Triangular-shaped case in chased and guilloché silver. The enameled dial topped with a diamond, the hours materialized by a different Masonic symbol and the maxim "Love your fellow man, extend him a helping hand". The dial is surrounded by the letters JGB in blue enamel. The back is decorated with the temple, columns, bible, sword, mallet, trowel, mosaic pavement, acacia and the eye in the upper part. The sides are also decorated with Masonic motifs. The back lifts, activated by a hinge, revealing the mechanism. Swiss manufacture from the end of the 19th century. Missing the glass on the dial, very small discreet crack in the enamel in the upper right corner of the dial Dimensions 5.5 x 7

x 1 cm Gross weight 57.5 g
