Description

Enrique SERRA AUQUE Barcelona, 1859 - Rome, 1918 Oil on canvas Signed and dated lower left "ENRIQUE SERRA/ 1892 " 40 x 33 cm (45 x 38 cm with frame) Enrique Serra Auqué studied painting at the School of Fine Arts from Barcelona with Ramón Martí Alsina and Domènec Talarn. He continued his studies in Rome in 1879 with Mariano Fortuny at the Chigi academy. Enrique Serra achieves his first successes in Rome. He also received a gold medal at the 1888 Universal Exhibition in Barcelona. He also traveled to Paris where he settled in 1895 and opened a workshop. Enrique Serra Auqué exhibited both in Paris and in Barcelona at Sala Parés. Our painting is characteristic of its genre scenes with pretty young girls in seductive poses. Our painting is particularly reminiscent of a work
