Description

Beautiful vanity mirror, in walnut and embossed and gilded brass, known as "tinsel". The facade is richly decorated with these golden foils decorated with flowers and foliage, a number is placed in the four corners: D and C. The whole thing is fixed on a walnut core and framed by very fine molded ebony sticks. Beautiful original beveled mercury mirror with widespread pitting. The rear is equipped with a two-legged stand, beech mirror floor. This toilet ice is in its own juice and of very good quality with a spiked ice which gives it a lot of charm. No missing straps. French work from the end of the 17th century.
