Description

Beautiful and luminous oil painting on cardboard executed during the first half of the 20th century. This painting represents a view of the bay of Algiers from a high point, we see a beautiful residence on the left, lush vegetation, numerous houses below, finally the bay of Algiers on which boats sail and a mountain, more far away, in a more diffuse light. Quality oil painting in its original frame, on the back there is an essay painting of roses. Signature to be deciphered at the bottom left. Please note: this painting and its framing are generally very good. Tiny gaps on the fir trees on the left and on the water tank in the center, very small spots in the sky. Please look carefully at the photos. Dimensions at sight: Length: 31 cm Height: 21 cm Total dimensions (of the frame): Length: 48.5 cm Height: 38 cm
