Description

This sumptuous 18-carat yellow gold ring, dating from 1925, is a true period treasure. It is adorned with diamonds totaling more than one carat, which gives it exceptional sparkle. The swirl design is beautifully decorated with 14 brilliant-cut diamonds, creating a dynamic and elegant pattern. At the center of this swirling creation is a brilliant-cut diamond, masterfully mounted to allow light to pass through, maximizing its brilliance and sparkle. This arrangement highlights the central stone, adding a spectacular dimension to the whole. The ring, in size 48, combines the classic beauty of yellow gold with the timeless brilliance of diamonds, making it a piece of rare elegance. Perfect for collectors of antique jewelry or those who appreciate refined luxury, this ring is a symbol of
