Description

George III period buffet or side cabinet in mahogany from the end of the 18th century very beautiful and rare bowfront sideboard our first in 10 years composed of two doors and two drawers

The front of the piece is curved which gives it a beautiful line. In addition, the two doors are decorated with oval macaroons typical of Sheraton furniture. Moreover, the buffet is decorated with marquetry inlays on the two drawers, on the two doors, at the bottom as well as on the top.

Very beautiful work on the top with a the use of mahogany veneer which gives two different
