Italian design 1960s Murano art glass vase in smoked grey and transparent. Beautiful Murano glass vase, designed by Flavio Poli for Alessandro Mandruzzato (Murano, Italy, 1960s). This vase is made of thick glass. Beautifully faceted glass. It is extremely decorative. Mandruzzato is known for producing exceptional pieces in geometric and cubic shaped art glass. This Vase made with the submerged glass technique. The processing technique is called submerged glass, it will become the iconic technique of Flavio Poli, a technique that is performed by superimposing different layers of glass with different consistencies and colors. The multi-color effect is awesome! This precious vase is a true work of glass art and can be placed in any room of the house. Excellent vintage
