Description

Italian design circa 1970s Murano art glass blue, yellow and transparent vase. A beautiful vase with intense colors, the blue has a unique quality and intensity. The presence of the original vintage label is a real rarity. Made by Formia, a historic Murano glass factory that has created important vases with an iconic design. This vase is made of thick glass. It is extremely decorative. This vase is made with the submerged glass technique. The processing technique is called submerged glass, it will become the iconic technique that is performed by superimposing different layers of glass with different consistencies and colors. The multi-color effect is awesome! This precious vase is a true work of glass art and can be placed in any room of the house. Excellent vintage condition.
