PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Hendra Gunawan (1918-1983) "family Reunion"

250 EUR

Signature : HENDRA GUNAWAN

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Vellum

Length : 63

Width : 58

Depth : 3

Description

Scene with Women and ChildrenInk and wash on vellum paper, 1971Ink and wash on thick vellum paper, signed and dated 1971 lower left, by Hendra Gunawan, one of the leading figures of modern Indonesian art.This work depicts an intimate scene bringing together women and children, a central theme in Hendra Gunawan's artistic universe. The elongated figures, stylized faces and expressive gestures are arranged in a fluid, rhythmic composition characteristic of the artist's distinctive graphic language. The bold, calligraphic line is subtly enhanced with washes, creating depth, movement and emotional intensity.The use of high-quality vellum paper, thick and durable, indicates a fully realized work conceived for preservation rather than a preparatory study. The paper shows a few old

Dealer

MELDEVA ART
Paintings, Sculptures, Drawings and Works of Art
Mobile : 0645891037

Victor Hugo
Mont-de-Marsan 40000

folds, consistent with the nature and history of the support, without affecting the readability or expressive power of the composition.Dated from a mature period of the artist's career, this work is a fine example of Hendra Gunawan's humanist vision and his deep engagement with everyday life and the Indonesian people.- 63 x 58 cm - 20th century, dated 1971- Good overall condition, with old folds to the paper