He obtained several awards there. Equally comfortable in watercolors and oils, he enjoyed significant notoriety. He is part of the group of thirteen. At a very young age, he created decorative panels, and in 1900 he collaborated with Paul Saïn on the decoration of the PLM station. Introduced into official circles, he portrayed the brother of President Loubet in 1905, then received commissions from Baron Rothschild and the Council of Austria-Hungary. Wounded during the First World War, he lost an
