Description

Rare series of 11 knives from the 18th century, Farmers General hallmarks. These knives with filled silver handles and steel blades are a beautiful testimony to the tableware of the Louis XV or Louis XVI era. The blades, which are still very sharp, are almost not oxidized. the handle bears the marks of use and time while still remaining very solid. 3 of them would require a little restoration, money being a little open. Rare set for enthusiasts from the 18th century.
