Description

Le Plaisir Dérobé, sculpture in porcelain biscuit after the plaster original by Louis Simon Boizot executed in 1784 preserved in the archives of the city of ceramics of Sèvres. Our very lightly glazed bisque copy is of a high quality of execution, it represents a muse with a cherub, the latter stealing something from a cone held by the muse. No signature. This must be a test carried out in Sèvres during the Second Empire. Very good condition, no breakage or missing. Napoleon III period. Delivery 18 euros in France, 35 euros in the EU and 100 euros rest of the world.
