

Delacroix Eugène (1798-1863)"hamlet & Guildenstern"drawing/black Pencil,stamp,provenanceehrmann

5 500 EUR

Signature : DELACROIX Eugène (1798-1863)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Width : 23 cm

Height : 27,5 cm

Description

"Hamlet and Guildenstern"

DELACROIX Eugène (1798-1863).

Black pencil drawing.

Bears the stamp of the workshop sale (Lugt 838a).

Provenance: Former Jean Ehrmann Collection (Lugt 3581), its stamp on the back.

Dimensions: H 27.5 x W 23 cm.

Our drawing is an illustration project for Hamlet and Guildenstern, it presents some variations with lithography.

Dealer

Galerie Mazarini

Old drawings, watercolors & paintings from the 16th till mid 20th century

Tel : +33 (0)4 72 40 99 49

Mobile : +33 (0)6 87 73 11 33

6 Place de la Baleine

Lyon 69005

Passionate about Shakespeare and especially the character of Hamlet, Delacroix attended numerous theatrical performances during a trip to London in 1825. He illustrated several plays by Shakespeare between 1834 and 1859.

Our drawing corresponds to N°51A of our new catalog from June 2024 available online at:
www.galerie-mazarini.fr