

Amethyst And Freshwater Pearl Necklace

353 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Semi precious stone

Description

This stunning necklace is made from 12 freshwater pearls and a multitude of amethyst beads, offering natural elegance and a pop of vibrant color. Pearl beads are raw, uncut, adding authenticity and unique texture to each piece. The necklace wire is doubled, ensuring strength and durability. The amethyst beads, each unique, vary in shades of purple, providing subtle color diversity and a refined radiance. Versatile, this necklace can be worn in different ways: in a single turn for a classic and elegant look, or in two turns for a more modern and daring look (see photos). This necklace is perfect to complete your summer outfits, adding a touch of sophistication and freshness to your style.
