Description

Chairs by Gastone Rinaldi (1920-2006) for his family business Rima. This award-winning Italian designer is known for his avant-garde creations produced in small quantities which attract the desire of collectors of designer ARTicles. This suite of arm chairs has a style straight out of the Italian Space Age of the 70s. Each is covered with a removable snap-on cushion with a hanging system at the level of the terracotta red backrest. With a chrome metal structure and a wire seat, these chairs seem to float in the air. The characteristic curvature of the Cantilever base significantly increases their comfort. These 6 chairs will blend perfectly into a retro or contemporary interior. ***** Period: 1970
