Minamoto no Yorimitsu under the name Sakata no Kintoki. He is a popular character in noh and kabuki. Kintaro dolls are displayed on Boys' Day in the hope of seeing boys become as brave and strong as Kintaro.

The set of "One Hundred Aspects of the Moon", inspired by historical or legendary stories from China and Japan, is Yoshitoshi's most famous series, begun in 1885 and completed just before his death in 1892. Already at the time, each new print published was an event, the prints often sold out on the morning of their publication.
