

Gb Brustolon (1712 - 1796), The New Doge Is Crowned, Etching And Chisel, Circa 1766

550 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Description

The new Doge is crowned with the 'corno' hat standing at the top of the Scala de Giganti in the Palazzo Ducale

after Antonio Canaletto (1697 - 1768)

Etching and engraving

circa 1766

Impression on watermarked laid paper, plate 3 of the series Le Feste Ducali, published by Furlanetto, in Venice.

Sheet: 477 x 638 mm

Plate: 444 x 565 mm

Reference: a proof is preserved in the British Museum.

Condition: trimmed to the platemark on one side.

Dealer

Galerie Christian Collin

Gravures anciennes et modernes

Tel : 0145446228

Mobile : 0611270484

11 rue Rameau

Paris 75002