Description

This Star of David pendant is made from 18k yellow gold, measuring 2cm in height and weighing 1.2 grams. This symbol, often associated with Judaism, has deep roots in several millennial pre-Abrahamic cultures and religions. In Hebrew, the Star of David is called Shield of David (Magen David), meaning "Shield of David". The pendant is certified by an eagle's head hallmark, guaranteeing the quality of 750 thousandths gold. This jewel combines history, symbolism and elegance, making it a precious piece to wear or give as a gift.
