Description

Rare advertising posters from the 1920s, some bearing a calendar, for WALLUT and MAC CORMICK brand tractors and agricultural machines. There are 6 of them, they present 3 different models. These posters served as a support for a local "artist" who wrote there, in his most beautiful pen, his love of cycling and his passion for the Tour de France during the years 1924 - 1925 (Bottecchia winner). His "odes", accompanied by humorous and clumsy drawings, celebrate the Queen of bicycles: the "VIOLINE", produced by the AUTOMOTO brand later absorbed by Peugeot, as well as certain cyclists of the time such as Bottecchia, Fontan, etc. .. They are signed "PAU Junior". Each poster is approximately 62 x 40 cm in size, priced at EUR80 each, + shipping costs. Detailed photos
