Description

Work purchased at the ARCO 1994 fair in Pelaires, famous gallery in Palma de Mallorca, known for having catapulted the career of Miquel Barceló
195 x 260 cm
Painter in the orbit of lyrical and chromatic abstraction, who has been developing his work since the end from the 1970s. In his works, he displays a sign language tending towards the pictographic, in the tradition of the Mironian constellations, with recurring forms such as zigzag lines, spirals, crosses, arrows, celestial shapes, grids or indexical signs on chromatic and material backgrounds, which serve as a wall surface, displaying a visual world that refers to childhood, the collective unconscious and an idea of eternal return.
