Description
-------------

Suite of six Louis XIII style walnut chairs. They were made in the first half of the 19th century in the tradition of "beautiful work" as evidenced by the choice of excellent walnut wood, careful adjustment, fully doweled . It will be necessary to refill the upholstery and choose new seat coverings. Their bar backs give them a great elegance, refined, and allow them to easily adapt to contemporary interiors, while retaining this classic look of a large house.
