Description

Suite of four grotesque figurines from a large Renaissance-style piece of furniture. We can think of them as Italian. It is therefore four small Termes gods, emerging from a sheath, and looking at each other two by two, their faces comically distorted. They have the flavor of rare details and the charm of ancient times. You can place them on a table, as we simply did, or use them in a decoration. Their little scowl will always make you smile.
