Description

Quick description

Set of two old mortuary souvenirs, hair frames.

The one dated 1891 contains hair from a child who died at 16 months.

The hair was finely cut and then glued onto a glass plate with a blue background.

The second is dated 1901, both come from the same family (John).

Period frames with a pretty patina; slightly cleaned and protected by a veil of wax.

Very touching pieces.
