Description

Very large all-sided desk in blackened pear wood with geometric decoration in brass fillets. It opens with three drawers on the front and three simulated drawers on the back. The belt is in a scalloped shape with the central drawers recessed. The keyholes and simulated keyholes are decorated with a satyr mask wearing a leafy crown, finely chiseled in gilded bronze.

Double frame in brass flats on the sides of the belt harmoniously contouring, in the center, a female figure in gilded bronze. This central mascarón bears a knotted shell-shaped crown from which finely chiseled ribbons escape on each side.

The top covered in red morocco leather gilded
