

Lyon - Eight-pointed Dish With Bérain Decoration - Eighteenth Century

550 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Length : 37,5cm

Description

Oblong dish in Lyon earthenware with a eight-pointed edge. Decor called "à la Bérain" in blue monochrome representing Apollo holding his quiver in the center framed by two female busts and two masks spitting water, scene surrounded by foliage and arabesques. Embroidery on the wing and blue net.

Eighteenth century

Length: 37.5cm

Two chips on the edge. (see photos)

Additional photos and information on request.

<https://bils-ceramiques.com>

Dealer

Bils Ceramiques

Ceramic Specialist, Sales Purchase & Expertise

Mobile : 06.74.59.17.01

Lyon 69002