Description

Beautiful set of 9 crystal glasses cut with Baccarat scales and fillets. The model, slightly flared, is characterized by 4 rows of scales arranged in a staggered pattern cut into the thickness of the crystal and 4 circular threads. The first and last row of scales are rounded for a beautiful finish. A very beautiful relief of the crystal with intense reflections, as you see in the photos. Their underside is perfectly polished. Unsigned because production before 1936. They are old and have exceptional brightness! They will make your table unique, refined and beautiful. They can be used as water glasses to accompany stemware in complete originality. The model was listed in 1907 in the Baccarat tableware catalog as "champagne wine service" on page 148 (see photo). Dimensions: Height: 9
