Description

This sumptuous 19th century gilded wood console is a masterpiece of decorative art of the period, perfect for antique lovers and discerning collectors. Its graceful scrollwork, exquisite acanthus leaves and delicate floral designs demonstrate exceptional craftsmanship of its time. The four curved, ornately decorated legs rise with majestic elegance, coming together in a central ornamentation that adds both stability and aesthetic harmony. Although this console has some gaps and wear, charming signs of its passage through the ages, it currently does not have marble. These slight imperfections do not detract from its appeal. Imagine this majestic piece sitting in your living room or entrance hall, bringing with it a touch of opulence and history. Don't miss this unique opportunity to acquire a
