Description

This yellow gold ring, dating from the 1960s, celebrates the beauty of nature with timeless elegance. Finely engraved with patterns evoking waves, a dolphin and plants, it embodies a unique artistic design. Three precious stones, a dazzling ruby, a deep blue sapphire and a shimmering emerald, all brilliant cut, are harmoniously inlaid, creating a captivating tutti frutti effect. Weighing 5.3 grams and size 52, this ring is distinguished by its vintage charm and authentic character. A French maker's mark guarantees the quality of the 750 thousandths gold, confirming its precious origin and its exceptional value.
