Description

China, 1930s, very pretty and unusual sculpture made from a large piece of bamboo representing a junk on which three characters, hats and all the accessories useful for the navigation of this boat are visible. The finesse of the details is accentuated by the multiple openings made by the sculptor, highlighting each element. The beautiful honey-colored patina obtained after several decades of existence underlines the aesthetics of this piece.

Length 26.3 cm. Height 9.7 cm. The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a brand known to everyone.
