Description

Exceptional gilded bronze liqueur cellar from the 19th century. This cellar has beveled glass on all four sides and a mirror on the floor. The decor is superb, cherubs on the upper corners and garlands of fruit and flowers. A key and a very nice socket to open this cellar. Inside, a removable gilded bronze basket presents four carafes and sixteen glasses with Greek decoration. (two very slightly different glasses with the same decoration except for the gilding which is absent). We point out the lack of two small cups supported by the cherubs. DIMENSIONS: 40cm x 32cm and 30cm high. Delivery on estimate.
