Description

Beautiful refined garden fountain with statue in neoclassical style, early 20th century main material mixed with grit marble dust and cement. This beautiful and majestic fountain is made up of two basins arranged on two floors. Two sweet cherubs support the small shell-shaped upper basin. At the top, the fountain ends with a little cherub embracing a fish from whose mouth the water of the fountain flows. The large basin at the base is supported by fantastic feet in the shape of animals with undefined features of Renaissance style. The two basins are covered with small pieces of blue mosaic. The fountain shows signs of the passage of time but there are no breakages to report. This fountain is perfect for embellishing an important garden. Motor for water operation not present.
