Description

Our painting signed Henri Thomas, dated 1923, is the perfect example of the painter's work. Indeed, he mainly painted the Brussels aristocracy of the "belle époque" in the world of theater and social evenings. Very keen to highlight actresses from an artistic background, our painting is an important piece of his career because it sums up in itself the painter's favorite atmospheres: the theater and the upper bourgeoisie. Original frame and canvas, which is quite rare.
