Description

70s lamp decorated with dolphins in the style of the Charles house in brushed metal and bronze. Inspired by the bouillotte lamp, three chiseled bronze dolphins support three points of light (three binets) and rest on an axis in the shape of a partly gadrooned top. The lampshade is height adjustable. The central barrel in brushed metal is regularly grooved, smooth and beaded, with chiseled decoration at the top and base. The square base is connected by two wings with four lion legs. Pine cone at the top. Original electricity.
