Description

Discover an exceptional collector's item: this wooden watch holder gilded with gold leaf, a real treasure dating from the 1st Empire. Combining elegance and history, it stands out for its old charm and exquisite details. The wood, partially gilded and subtly painted green, highlights two graceful angels carrying roses, adding a poetic and delicate touch. This watch holder measures 26cm in height and rests on a 16.6cm wide base, providing elegant stability. The 4.5 cm diameter opening is perfectly designed to accommodate your pocket watch, which attaches to a stud on the back, showcasing it in a majestic way.
(Pocket watch is not included.)
