

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Michele Battista, Pair Of Italian Flintlock Pistols, Royal Naples Manufacture

5 900 EUR

Signature : Michele Battista

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Other

Description

Pair of pistols called "à la miquelet" with bronze and silver trim by Michele Battista, second half of the 18th century.

Finely chiseled and engraved Italian flint plates signed inside the platinum of the Master of the Royal Manufacture of Naples, Michele Battista.

Round cannons striated in the first third, smooth to the mouth, ending with a fine bead.

Thumb piece with a crowned coat of arms.

Belt hook finely cut with the fixing screw.

The Naples factory had at that time a small production of luxury pieces that provided

Dealer

Collection

Collection

Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000

princely families.

Length: 36 cm

The names of the best master gunsmiths of the Fabbrica are little known today (except that of Master Michele Battista), but other names have been Discovered thanks to recent archive surveys:

Giovanni Moretti, Nicola Simeone, Pietro Ferrara,

Emanuel Estevan, Carlo Labruna, Biagio Ignesti, Natale del Moro, etc...

A very rich collection of objects produced by the Royal Manufacture of Naples Royal is now present at the Capodimonte Museum in Naples, and in the most important museums in the world.

With the unification of Italy, the factory was gradually

Downgraded, passing under the administration of the royal army first, then of the Italian army, until 1901 when

The production of firearms stopped completely.