

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Period Transition Buffet In Satin Marquetry - Shallow Depth H135 X L166 X P41cm

4 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Length : 166cm

Height : 135cm

Depth : 41cm

Description

Rare shallow sideboard in satin veneer with fillet frames on oak and fir box. With cut-off uprights, it rests on claw feet and is decorated with a rich decoration of chiseled and mercury-gilded bronzes (superb corner falls in rows of piastres). This beautiful and large piece of furniture opens with 2 large doors whose interiors are also inlaid. It is topped with its original Aleppo Breche marble, carved in cavet (luxury marble). Parisian work from the Transition period Louis A piece of furniture that looks big but doesn't take up any floor space. It can be used as a dining room sideboard, but also a perfect complement to our satin cylinder desk, to make an office piece of furniture where you can store files invisibly. It is a rare proposition, an unusual piece of furniture. The quality of the bronzes, the luxury marble and

Dealer

GSLR Antiques

French Antiques - 18th to 20th century.

Mobile : +33658910924

4 rue Vicat

Grenoble 38 000

the interior of the doors veneered with marquetry are also signs of high quality. It is in very good condition ; varnish with pad cleaned and repolished by our cabinetmaker. Old restorations, No accident to the plating, original marble.
Length: 166cm Height: 135cm Depth: 41cm