Description

Very beautiful Louis XVI period mahogany serving console stamped LN MALLE and JME. Rounded in shape, it rests on 4 oblong tapered and blunt fluted legs.

Rich ornamentation of gilded bronzes such as belt scrapers, sticks highlighting the 3 drawers, pulling rings, rings, sabots and connecting dice to the 4 feet.

The server has a Carrara marble top with a reseau underlined by an openwork gallery in gilded bronze.

We find a similar marble on the crotch shelf, also surrounded by a gilded bronze gallery.

On the front, a drawer with its functional lock is covered in a slightly speckled mahogany veneer, as are the two curved side compartments.
