

Luxury Superior Officer's Saber By Fauré Lepage

2 490 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Other

Description

Gilded brass guard with four secondary branches decorated with laurel leaves. Cap, monogrammed, in a long-tailed spoon generously decorated with laurel leaves and others topped with a rim. Rounded joint arch, pierced with an eyelet at its upper part to pass the strap. Blackened buffalo horn handle filigreed with fine twisted wire. Top finished with a curved quillon, engraved afterwards. Straight blade with hollow side signed: "H.Fauré Le Page 8. Rue Richelieu Paris". Steel scabbard with a bail ring. Large saber with a blade of 92.5 cm and a total length of 107 cm. FAURE-LEPAGE was a very renowned arquebusier and furnisher. It was installed in Paris 1st, at No. 8 Rue de Richelieu from 1865 to 1913. Originally Mr. Fauré had joined forces with Henri Lepage, an arquebus maker specializing in the

Dealer

Collection

Rare & Unusual Objects

Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000

production of weapons quite similar to the work of art intended for a very wealthy clientele... This signature, in itself, is a guarantee of quality. Monogrammed LP, this saber is attributed to Paul de Ladmirault, born February 17, 1808, died February 1, 1898, French general (1808 - 1898).