Description

This sumptuous 18-carat white gold ring, certified with a French eagle's head maker's mark, is a true jewelry masterpiece. In the center of the ring sits a magnificent barrel-cut blue sapphire, weighing 5.77 carats, which immediately attracts attention with its depth and captivating brilliance. Framing this sapphire, twelve baguette-cut, G-colored diamonds add a touch of sophistication and brilliance, totaling 0.96 carats. Their elegant arrangement around the central stone creates a captivating play of light, further enhancing the beauty of the sapphire. With a weight of 10.7 grams and a finger size of 53, this ring offers optimal comfort while remaining an imposing and luxurious piece. Whether for a special occasion or to enrich your jewelry collection, this 18k white gold ring is a statement of style and
