Description

This plate, crafted from Limoges porcelain and hand-painted, features a design signed by the artist Duval.

The decoration showcases two fishes jumping in the water, rendered in a Japanese style.

The plate has a diameter of 24.4 cm (9.6 inches).

On the back, it is marked "Limoges CORONET France" and is dated to around 1910.

The plate exhibits very light marks of use, as seen in the accompanying photos.

Limoges porcelain is renowned for its quality and artistry.

The Coronet mark indicates that this piece was produced by a respected manufacturer in the Limoges region, known for its fine porcelain since the 18th century.
