

Object Of Curiosity "pharmaceutical Infusion Tube" In Glass With Silver Stirrer - 19th Century

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Diameter : 7 cm

Height : 44 cm

Description

Object of Curiosity "Pharmaceutical Infusion Tube" in Glass with Stirrer in Sterling Silver. Dating from the 19th Century Magnificent and monumental pharmaceutical infusion tube with an astonishing stirrer or pestle in solid silver. The pitcher is made of blown glass. The Serpent with ruby eyes is superbly engraved and wrapped around the pitcher. It perfectly reflects the pharmaceutical codes. The cap with a pouring spout decorated with an imaginary animal is topped with an elegant snake button coiled in Sterling Silver. Both pieces are in perfect condition. This is a rare and exceptional example of an object of curiosity....

Dealer

Le Bouche à Oreille

Art Religieux- Objets de Curiosité -Antiquités du XVIe au XXe Siècle

Mobile : 06 19 49 81 63

Les Hauts de France

Lambres-lez-Aire 62120