Description

Beautiful Rosewood Secretary from the Louis XV Period. It opens to a flap trimmed with Antique red Morocco highlighted with a golden edging on the irons.

It reveals four lockers as well as four small drawers veneered with rosewood and their small brass ring handles.

The lower part opens with two leaves in Rosewood Veneer with Butterfly wings in frames of amaranth wood and Rosewood wood fillets, revealing a space divided by a shelf, decorated with bronze lock openings gilded and bronze puttis.

The uprights with cut sides in rosewood are inlaid with double wide amaranth wood threads.

Top in Gray Marble of Sainte Anne, stamp under the marble, P. J hallmark, I think Jean Pierre
